

Whose Party?

Not all of the Republican journals of the North are satisfied with the prospects of the outcome of the coalition entered into between the Readjusters of Virginia and the Republicans. The New York Times, for example, asks the following question, which no one seems to be fully authorized to answer:

"If there is an Administration party in Virginia which is not the Republican party, we are to infer that there may be such a thing in other States?"

This is a question which Democrats no less than Republicans are concerned in being able to answer understandingly. What sort of party is that party in Virginia which professes to be in full sympathy with the Administration at Washington and which boasts of having had placed at its disposal all the offices in the State? which declares it to be its purpose so to gerrymander Virginia as to secure the election to the next Congress of eight Administration members? which repudiates thirteen millions of dollars of bonds issued by Virginia since the war, and declared to be a debt justly owing by the State by three of her post-bellum Governors, by her Legislature again and again, and by her Supreme Court of Appeals, and yet claims to be supported by a Republican Administration? and which nevertheless at the same time protests that it is not an integral portion of the Republican party? And, as the Times may well ask, can there be another such party in each State, and yet all of them be allies of Mr. Arthur's Administration? Can there be one in Louisiana that will antagonize the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in regard to the New Orleans repudiating scheme? One in Tennessee opposing a settlement of the State debt satisfactory to the creditors? One in Georgia, sustaining Mr. SPEER'S independent movement? One in Ohio, opposing (or favoring) the Poxd bill, and denouncing (or favoring) all other bills for taxing liquors and compelling drinking saloons to be closed on Sunday, and at the same time one in North Carolina, opposing the same measures which the Administration countenances in Ohio?

Upon what terms does Mr. ARTHUR propose to enter into alliances with all these differing parties or factions? Does he desire them to do anything else than to defeat the regular Democratic party? We believe not. He seems to have adopted the tactics of the negroes, who will vote for anybody that runs against the Democrats, let him advocate what he will or oppose what he will. Mr. ARTHUR'S army, if he organizes such a one, will be either a Fabianian army, held together by the "cohesive power of public plunder," or else a mere unholy league, having no hope of any other reward than the poor satisfaction of defeating the Democratic party.

Can such a new movement succeed? Can the LEWISSES, WICKHAM, WILLIAMS, DEZENBORG, JOHNSONS, the RYSEES, WINGFIELD, HUGHES, ATKINS, and the other Republicans who have stood by their party through evil and through good report surrender their leadership of a genuine Republican party and become dependent upon the favors of the leader of a party which is not fully Republican, but merely sympathetically Republican—a party whose resemblances to the Republican party of the North are not as numerous as its dissimilarities?

On the other hand, can the Democratic Readjusters consent to play the role assigned to them by General MAHONE? Are they ready to elect eight Republican congressmen next fall?

Finally, isn't it inevitable that either the Readjuster Republicans or the Readjuster Democrats are to be deceived? Which shall it be? If Messrs. WILLIAMS and WINGFIELD are not to be deceived, then Messrs. LYBROOK, NEWBERRY, and HALE must be. Conversely, if Messrs. LYBROOK, NEWBERRY, and HALE are not to be deceived, then Messrs. WILLIAMS and WINGFIELD must be. There are no questions of readjustment ahead of us, so far as the State debt is concerned.

The Chinese Bill.

The passage of the Chinese bill on Monday in the House of Representatives by a vote of 201 yeas to 37 nays ought to enable the advocates of Chinese immigration to see the wave of popular indignation now sweeping over the land against the veto of the first bill to keep the "machine men" of the Flowery Kingdom from migrating to this country.

The Virginia delegation were divided as follows:

For the bill: Messrs. CARROLL, DEZENBORG, FULKERSON, JOHNSONS, PAUL, and WISE.

Against the bill: No Virginia member.

Not voting: Messrs. BARNETT, GARRISON, and TUCKER, who were absent from the House, or paired, no doubt.

It will be seen that Messrs. PAUL and FULKERSON, Readjusters, and Messrs. JOHNSONS and DEZENBORG, Republicans,—the first two representing white districts, or Caucasian voters, and the last two representing black districts, or negro voters—united with the Democrats of the whole Union in passing a bill to free this happy country forever from an evil compared to which all those we have hitherto experienced are but as a dozen mosquitoes to all the plagues of Egypt. If we are to import any persons of the inferior races to this country we say give us negroes all the time rather than Chinese.

General MAHONE and ex-Governor Broome of Georgia are the only southern senators, we believe, who voted against the vetoed bill, or to sustain the veto. We trust and believe that they will have learned before the new bill comes to a vote in the Senate that their former vote was given on the wrong side of the question. No man can command the suffrages of the thoughtful people of the United States who has so little sympathy with the bone and sinew of the land as not to be able to feel, even if his judgment did not tell him, that it would be a crime against the Caucasian race to bring them into competition with the Mongols.

Swept off His Feet.

Whilst the Chinese bill was before the House of Representatives on Monday Mr. KASSON, of Iowa, a leading Republican, and one of the sentimental John-Browns species, made a bitter speech against the bill and the Democrats. He declared that "he did not believe in the spirit in which the Democrats of the House had pursued this question, nor in the duty or justice of the Congress of the United States making itself a pack of hounds to hunt any race created on God's earth and permitted to live on His earth. He said Congress was called to assail a particular race of human beings, to separate them from other races, to exclude them from our soil, and to bring into the United States a spirit of persecution—race persecution."

And then when the roll was called, he voted for the bill! His speech shows that he was at heart opposed to the bill. His vote shows that he dared not express by his vote his real opinions. He is merely the bell-wether of the flock of simple sheep that went astray. He has jumped back into the right road, and his followers will come trooping after him. Oh, ye wiseacres, could ye not read the signs of the times?

It is not impossible that the Democrats in the United States Senate may succeed in engrafting upon the new Chinese bill an amendment prohibiting Chinese immigration for fifteen years. The House bill prohibits it for ten years only. We judge that the Republicans of that body will try to unite against the amendment because they know that Mr. ARTHUR might veto the bill if it doesn't afford him some excuse for taking the back track; but it may be that some Pacific-State senator will be afraid to oppose the amendment.

THE ERICSSON CASE.—In the United States Supreme Court, on Monday, in the case of The City of Manchester, Va., plaintiff in error, vs. O. A. Ericsson, in error to the Circuit Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Virginia, judgment was reversed with costs and cause remanded with directions to set aside the verdict and award a new trial. Opinion by Mr. Justice MILLER.

In other words, the city gained the case.

We return thanks to Hon. WILLIAM A. RUSSELL, of Massachusetts, and Hon. GEORGE D. WISE, of Virginia, for public documents.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., April 15, 1882.

Having noticed your article in to-day's issue headed "Explanation Needed," I would say that at one of the polling places in this town, at which I was present from 9 o'clock until the closing, nearly every frame-colored man who voted produced a receipt signed by Mr. Massey's appointee. I suppose this was also the case at the other precinct. Yours,

A DISGUSTED OBSERVER.

[How was it in 1880?]

APRIL 17, 1882.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

I see the Whig excuses Mr. Blair's bad English by suggesting typographical errors, &c. What excuse can be given for his statement that Jefferson was one of the framers of our Federal Constitution? Jefferson went to France in 1784, and did not return till after the Government was put into operation. That Constitution was intended to prevent the operation of the horrible doctrine taught up by Mr. Jefferson in France and announced in the extracts quoted by Mr. Blair.

SENEX.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

[For the Dispatch.]

Recent developments tend to simplify the situation in Virginia; the Richmond Whig, the leading and acknowledged organ of the Readjusters, having proclaimed itself in sympathy with the Republican Administration, and virtually announced that it now will support in 1884, the Republican candidate for President. It is very well known that the policy of the present Administration is directed by the extreme wing of the Republican party. Mr. Arthur and his Cabinet being "Stalwarts of the stalwart." It is gratifying, however, to know that the people of Virginia will be afforded in the future an opportunity of choosing directly between the Republican party and the Democratic party.

But the Whig contends that Readjusters may be in sympathy with and actively support the Republican party without necessarily being Republicans. Surely the people will not be deceived by any such flimsy pretext as this. As to the words "Funder" and "Readjuster," they have no further significance or meaning as applied to parties in Virginia, the State debt, to which they owe their origin, being out of politics. If being in sympathy with and actively supporting the Radical party, to which belong the worse enemies of the South; if opposition to the Democratic party, which is gratifying, however, to know that the people of Virginia will be afforded in the future an opportunity of choosing directly between the Republican party and the Democratic party.

The entrance of the Readjuster leaders into the Republican party is a surprise to few. This result was inevitable, and was long since predicted by the Dispatch. Verily, third parties are short-lived in this country. But how many Readjuster Democrats can be led into the Republican party remains to be seen.

ONE OF THE PEOPLE.

A Great Crime.

[For the Dispatch.]

I noticed several days ago a most sensible editorial in the State on the crime of removing the medical attendants at the insane asylums. This is a serious and far-reaching evil. One begun, who will say where it will end? No class of diseases is so difficult to treat as those of the mind. Months and years are sometimes required to arrive at successful treatment. A doctor's life should be given to this study. What incentive have these new appointees to devote themselves to this work? How long will they hold their posts? No longer than it takes to arouse the indignation of an outraged people. To trifle with the happiness of well men and women is bad enough, but to trample on the rights and peace of the sick is a high crime against humanity.

HUMANITY.

Richmond, April 17, 1882.

The sales commissioners bill is dead and past resurrection; the judiciary bill is quietly lying on the President's desk; the reappointment bill is about to have engraved features which will deprive it of a great deal of its excessive partisan nature. It is not a wonder that the presence of Mahone should be needed at Richmond. These reappointed members are not the devoted adherents need looking, and the Big Four need bulldozing; and mean time the caucus and Mahone are conducting a howling tempest in a tea-pot. —Martinsville Herald, a Republican paper.

In his scheme for the redistribution of his State Mahone is balked by two Republican senators, who hold the balance of power, and neither of whom has thus far weakened in his opposition to the new "Boss." Though each has been approached by all the working Republican influences in the State, the ultimate victory is claimed for Mahone by one of the most vigorous civil-servicemen journals upon the ground that the backing of the President from Mahone's undisputed control of the Federal patronage of the State must win. —Chicago Times.

All honor to the Senate of Virginia! It has thus far saved us from several iniquitous laws, and the complete domination of the State by one political ruler. The Boss finds the Senate a stone wall against outrages upon the Commonwealth. —Leesbury Washingtonian.

THE KING OF FLOOR-CLOTHS.—The new and artistic designs brought out this season in the patent LINCOLN floor-cloth will, no doubt, give this popular article an increased sale. It is the only floor-covering made combining in the highest degree the qualities essential to comfort, elegance, and economy. On account of its inferior imitations, see that the word "LINCOLN" is on the back of every square yard. All carpet-dealers keep it.

THE TOBACCO BILL.

Mr. ELLIOTT again submitted a motion to discharge the Committee on Agriculture and Mining from the further consideration of the House bill in relation to inspection of tobacco, and to put the bill on the calendar, and spoke at length thereon.

Mr. HURT opposed the motion, and said that the committee would meet this (Wednesday) morning, and if, as claimed, the friends of the bill had a majority, they should then vote to report it.

The CHAIR (Mr. WOOD) said that a majority vote could carry the motion of Mr. ELLIOTT.

Mr. HURT declared that the CHAIR had reversed its ruling repeatedly made during the last four months. He asked that time given to the rules and authorities. He was sure that the CHAIR was wrong.

The motion was passed by for thirty minutes.

Mr. ELLIOTT then offered a resolution requiring the committee to report the bill this (Wednesday) morning. Agreed to.

AYES—Messrs. Bailey, Barnes, Bliss, Elliott, Edgridge, Hale, Jones, Martin, Mayo, Newberry, Norton, Rawles, Riddinger, Rice, Stevens, Twyman, Walker, Wise, Williams, and Wood—20.

TAX BILL.

On motion of Mr. RIDDLEBERGER, the special order—the consideration of the tax bill—was postponed until to-day at 12 o'clock, as there was a general desire on the part of senators to reach their private and local bills.

JUDGES.

After a tedious discussion, the Senate agreed to House resolution in relation to the election of judges just as it came from the House. At one time an amendment was put up proposing to elect a judge for the Eighth circuit, but it appearing that Judge Lacy had never resigned the amendment was withdrawn.

INSURANCE COMPANY.

The name of Holly-Creek post-office, in Dickenson county, has been changed to "Clintwood."

Yesterday was election-day in Danville, when town officers were to be chosen.

The farmers of Mecklenburg county, it is said, are making extensive preparations for a wood and cotton, and if all things are favorable large crops may be expected.

ANOTHER MURDER IN PITTSBURGH.

Some persons have been impressed with the belief that this W. Lancaster is the young lawyer of this county, W. Lancaster, Esq., as he happened to be in Richmond a few days preceding the case referred to. In justice to a worthy young man, whose business might be injured by such an impression, allow me to say that he is not the man so reported; is a high-toned and honorable gentleman. W. H. C.

It there is to be a congressman at large elected next fall the "Big Four" have earned the right to nominate him, and it is the duty of Democrats to help to elect him.

Thousands of women have been entirely cured of the most stubborn cases of female weakness by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Send to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 233 Western avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets.
